REYNOLDA CHURCH LEADS ALL IN PER CAPITA GIVING

Replaces Patterson.—First Five in Concord and Winston-Salem Presbyteries.

Reynolda Presbyterian Church in Winston-Salem Presbytery returned to its leadership role in per capita giving in the Synod of North Carolina in 1937-1938. Reynolda was the leader in 1935-1936, but was shoved back to third place in 1936-1937 by Patterson and Concord First Churches in Concord Presbytery. However, Reynolda jumped from third position a year ago to first in the recently concluded year.

Last year's leader, Patterson, slipped back to fourth place, while Concord First maintained its hold on second position. North Wilkesboro eased up to third place as against fourth in 1936-1937. Since Winston-Salem First was in fifth place, it gives three of the first five churches to Winston-Salem Presbytery and two to Concord. That was the same division of the first five places a year ago, though the ranking of these five churches underwent some changes in 1937-1938.

These five churches and 75 others in the Synod of North Carolina made up the 80 churches that met the minimum need of ten cents per month from the Presbyterians of the Synod to operate the Orphanage. This is a net loss of three churches reaching this minimum amount, for there were 83 churches attaining this average a year ago.

Fifteen of last year's 83 churches feel below the $1.20 a year average. These were Cann Memorial, Goldsboro and Howard Memorial in Albemarle Presbytery; Dunn, Godwin and Shiloh in Fayetteville; Hephzibah, New Hope, Union Mills and West Avenue in Kings Mountain; Candor in Mecklenburg; High Point First in Orange; Ashewood in Wilmington, and Lexington First and Mount Airy in Winston-Salem.

Newcomers, however, numbered 12 to partially offset the above loss of 15. Those classified in 1937-1938 and who were not in the grouping a year ago are: Centre, Marion and Morganton in Concord Presbytery; Fairmont and South Fayetteville in Fayetteville; Cramerton and Rutherfordton in Kings Mountain; Pittsboro in Orange; Elizabethtown, Mount Horeb and Wilmington First in Wilmington, and Elkin in Winston-Salem.

Twenty-six churches averaged between $1.00 and $1.19; 59 were between $0.75 and $0.99; 72 averaged between $0.50 and $0.74; 122 from $0.25 to $0.49, and 135 averaged less than 25 cents per person.

Below will be found the names of all churches that averaged as much as 25 cents per member to

Good News

Read the following gratifying news and know that the Orphanage is going to reap:

The Men's Bible Class of the Mount Holly Church in Kings Mountain Presbytery has voted to give all of its first Sunday Offerings to the Orphanage. The president of the Class wrote that he hoped his Class would be in the $50.00 Club by the end of the year, but from the magnificence of that June first Sunday response of $7.00 it seems likely that the Mount Holly Men's Bible Class will be much closer to the $100.00 classification.

Oak Plain and Pink Hill Sunday Schools in Wilmington Presbytery, have adopted the plan of sending the fifth Sunday Offerings to Barium. This was inaugurated in May at both places, and the initial gifts have been received.

Contributions from Union Sunday School in Fayetteville Presbytery and Camp Greene in Mecklenburg were received in June, but it hasn't been learned yet whether these two places are following a regular procedure or whether these were simply special donations. It is known that some other Sunday Schools, which could not adopt a definite program, have sent special gifts to Barium recently.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF FIVE ORPHANAGES DELIBERATE

From The Children's Home Chronicle.

A bit of history was made when six delegates, three young men and three young women, from each of five child caring institutions recently assembled in the Brown Memorial Building at the Children's Home to discuss their social and religious opportunities and responsibilities. So far as known this was the first attempt on the part of orphanage young people to get together to discuss without fear of favor their own situations and to express any desire for modifications or additions to the guiding regulations under which they live. Delegations from the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs, the National Orphans' Home at Lexington, Mills Home at Thomasville and the Methodist Protestant Children's Home at High Point joined our delegation in these free and frank discussions.

Everett Gibson, of the Children's Home, was elected president and Eugene Shannon, of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, secretary of the meeting. Howard Gorman, of the Methodist Protestant Chil-

CAMP FELLOWSHIP HAS FORMAL OPENING IN JUNE

Those Responsible For Camp Entertained with Fish Fry on June 17.—Now in use.

Way back last winter we set a hen on a great big egg. That egg contained our hopes about a camp. Well, now it's hatched out, and my! such a hatching! You can actually see and touch and enjoy that camp. It's no longer just a hope, it's a reality. It was formally opened on Friday night June 17th, with a big fish fry. This fish fry was given in honor of all the people who had helped in any way to get this thing started, and you ought to have seen the crowd. Something like 250 people came, and more than that number were eligible to come, but were unable to come. We all just ate fish and inspected the camp and had dreams about what the camp was going to mean to the Orphanages of this part of North Carolina.

We wish we could describe this camp to all our readers. We would have to take an airplane view of it to really get an adequate description of it. Briefly, it is composed of three main buildings. One is for the girls' sleeping quarters; one for the boys' sleeping quarters and one for a dining room and kitchen. Then there's an out-door shed with just a roof on it which we named "The Pavillion." Then there's an out-door furnace or stove, ideal for frying fish, weiner roasts, barbecues, and such. It was the last named place that the fish fry was staged.

There were some 50 people from Charlotte. There were people from Salisbury, Hickory, Mooresville and of course, Statesville and Barium Springs.

A good many people have written about this. The Charlotte Observer and The Statesville Daily have both carried pretty full write-ups. We are hurrying through this part of it to get to the first week the camp was put into actual use, and that was Monday, June 20th. On that day, accompanied by heavy rains, and all sorts of ominous omens, 85 boys and girls from six to twelve years of age went out. They swarmed over the place like the sheep did when they were first taken out there. They ran from one end to another, and tried all the swings, tried all the games and did a little bit of everything until supper time; and then they ate up everything that was in sight. This was the first lesson to the counsellors: That folk on a camp eat just twice a much as they do in their regular daily habits. The first night at camp, nobody slept, which is usually the case. Everybody is so excited, but even at that, nobody suffered.

The river running over the shoals right near the camp makes such an even soporific sound that, as one little girl expressed it, you could lay awake in one end of their sleeping quarters and not hear anybody snoring at the other end. Part of them could be awake and part of them sleeping without disturbing the sleepers.

Tuesday was an ideal day. The swimming arrangements were organized and the old Catawba river had one busy day! Not only Tuesday, but Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday - twice a day - the whole bunch went out and thought up more different ways to enjoy the water than any hundred grown people could think up by concentrating a year.

The most popular place in the river was the shoals, where the water was swift and made a lot of noise, and acted awfully dangerous; but after all, it was just like puppies growling - it was all in fun.

One of the most delightful features of the camp was the fact that the Catawba River at that one spot has more safe territory than any other place on it. There is at least four acres of shallow water with sandy bottom that even the small children can play in it in safety.

We won't attempt to describe

First Thanksgiving

To "X. Y. Z.", an unknown friend of the Nahalah Sunday School in Albemarle Presbytery, goes the signal distinction of sending the first 1938 Thanksgiving Offering to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home. The date of the arrival was June 20th, which is more than five months before that all-important occasion when half of Barium's annual gifts are made by the Synod of North Carolina. This initial Thanksgiving Offering was $5.00.

This friend is the same who sent the Orphanage $7.00 on the 1937 Thanksgiving Offering from Nahalah Sunday School and he or she is very anxious that his or her identity remain unknown. Orphanage officials have no idea as to who this "X. Y. Z.", is, nor will any effort be made to ascertain this, for it is clearly shown by letters that accompanied both contributions that this person sincerely desires to remain incognito.

However, through these columns and to that individual the Orphanage desires to voice its sincere and hearty appreciation of both sums, to commend that person for the honor that is his or hers in making the first 1938 Thanksgiving Offering, and to offer congratulations.

Alumni News

The following news report in one of the Charlotte papers will be of great interest to the friends of Roland S. Ferguson, a graduate of Barium Springs in the Class of 1903, and who is one of the most consistent "returners" to the annual Home-Coming celebrations each fall:

"Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Stewart Ferguson celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage with a reception at their home, 210 N. Cecil Street, Saturday evening, June 18.

"The receiving line included members of the bridal party of 25 years ago and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall G. Peters, daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Charlie S. Manies and Charles R. McCoy.

"Mrs. R. Du Pont Dean greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Morrison C. Harkey directed to the registry. Mrs. C. W. Johnson had

69 CHURCHES GIVE BEST SUMS OF PAST 12 YEARS

Majority of the Churches Bettered Marks Established Last Year.

Sixty-nine churches in the Synod of North Carolina gave their largest sums to the Orphanage in the past 12 years, or since 1925-1926. Records prior to 1925-1926 were not checked on each individual church, but if this had been done, it would have been found that a number of these churches gave their best all-time aggregates to the Orphanage during the recently concluded year.

The majority of these churches establishing new peaks in their combined regular and Thanksgiving responses for the years under review broke high totals that were made in 1936-1937. To be exact, 41 of them bettered their 1936-1937 totals. The other years of previous peak totals and the number of churches breaking those marks in each of those respective years are: 1935-1936, nine; 1934-1935, eight; 1933-1934, two; 1932-1933, two; 1931-1932, one; 1928-1929, two; 1927-1928, one, 1925-1926, two, and one newly formed church filed ts initial report to Barium Springs.

According to Presbyteries, the churches reaching new totals of giving were distributed as follows: Albemarle, eight; Concord, nine; Fayetteville, 11; Granville, hree; Kings Mountain, one; Mecklenburg, 12; Orange, nine; Wilnington, seven, and Winston-Salem, nine.

The 69 churches gaining that distinction are as follows:

Church	Year of Previous Best Total
ALBEMARLE
Carraway Chapel	1936-1937
Grace Chapel	1936-1937
Grantham	1934-1935

(FORM OF BEQUEST)

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

It is to the honor and credit of 258 churches or mission points in the Synod of North Carolina that they surpassed the 1936-1937 giving to Barium Springs during the 1937-1938 fiscal year. We hope that every one of those 258, and many more, will be credited with a similar attainment when 1938-1939 has ended.

—P. O. H.—

Quite a few individuals have recently agreed to aid the Orphanage with direct monthly donations. All told, those who have definitely committed themselves to monthly contributions in recent months will give close to $450.00 to the Orphanage in a year's time. Such is highly gratifying and tremendously encouraging.

—P. O. H.—

It is great that 69 churches or mission points in the Synod could last year give the largest sums that they have contributed to the Home in the past dozen years. Plenty of congratulations are extended to these 69 groups. May they all establish other new highs in 1938-1939, and may many other churches join them before the current year has been concluded.

—P. O. H.—

Although 1938-1939 is only one-fourth gone, the Sunday Schools of Concord First, Albemarle and Burlington First are already members of the $100.00 Club. Their offerings in April, May and June were of such magnificent proportions as to make this announcement possible. We are proud of them. A year ago at this time only Concord First Sunday School had "made" that Club.

—P. O. H.—

Have you visited the Orphanage at Barium Springs? If not, why not come to see us this summer? You'll be cordially welcomed at any time. A registration book has been purchased and the names of all our visitors during the year will be recorded, insofar as the people will register when they visit us. We'd like to have your name in that book. Quite a few names have already been written therein.

—P. O. H.—

Have you been keeping up with those "Good News" items on the front page of The Messenger? Isn't it great that we have been privileged to have such encouraging items to print almost every month. We're hoping that we'll always have something for that space in The Messenger, which is being reserved for any organization who desires to join with the many others in contributing every month.

—P. O. H.—

There are 327 children at Barium Springs today, and that's the largest number of boys and girls who have been enrolled at the Orphanage since April, 1932. That is already 10 more than were here in 1937-1938, and the intake has not yet been completed. We rejoice that the Synod of North Carolina has made it possible for the Orphanage to take in more children by lifting the cumbersome indebtedness that hovered over the Home a few years ago.

—P. O. H.—

Work in revising the mailing list of The Messenger goes on and on. That is never completed. There are always changes of residence being made, the names of deceased people have to be eliminated, and newcomers to churches have to be added. New names are cordially welcomed. Orphanage Secretaries in every Auxiliary are urged to see that all of their people receive the little paper. It costs the individual nothing, but it means a great deal to the Home for this paper to reach every Presbyterian home.

—P. O. H.—

Congratulations to Warrenton Sunday School for leading all others in the Synod of North Carolina in per capita giving. Similar felicitations are offered to Kings Mountain Presbytery for leading the Presbyteries. And, congratulations to the many, many Sunday Schools that showed per capita increases in 1937-1938. We would like to single out each one for special mention, but space forbids that. Facts about each, though, were obvious in last month's Messenger when the tabulation for the entire Synod was prepared.

—P. O. H.—

Every member of the Men's Fellowship Club of the Charlotte Second Church and every person who has had a part in establishing Camp Fellowship on the Catawba River should drop into the camp sometime during this summer and see what a gorgeous time the children are having there. It would cheer their hearts to know that they added so much to the pleasure of the boys and girls at Barium Springs, and the children of other Orphanages who are being invited to the camp. This has met a need at the Orphanage and it is something that is going to be of great benefit for a good many years to come.

—P. O. H.—

During the month of March, specific challenges that aggregated $809.35 were extended to 70 Sunday Schools in the Synod of North Carolina. Some of those challenges were very high, compared with the giving during the first 11 months, but were issued in an effort for each of those Sunday Schools to reach a certain total for the year. It is rather interesting that those 70 Sunday Schools gave $771.24 in March, which is only $38.11 short of the sum total that had been challenged. The majority more than met the amounts suggested, which partially offset those that could not come up to the challenge.

—P. O. H.—

Early in May a request was received from one of the Auxiliaries in Orange Presbytery that we dispatch some mite boxes to them for the 1938 Thanksgiving Offering of that organization. "We fell down on our Offering in 1937," read the communication, "and we want to get started early this year." They certainly did start early - eight months before Thanksgiving! We understand that the Auxiliary has decided, though, to open their mite boxes every three months and send what they have to Barium Springs, instead of waiting until Thanksgiving to open them. This is commendable. The money will surely help. If the Auxiliary wants it recorded as Thanksgiving Offering such can be done at Barium Springs.

Memorial contributions to the Orphanage in 1937-1938 totaled $747.05, which was $250.40 more than was sent in 1936-1937. The majority of that $747.05 was in lieu of flowers for funerals, though there were an increased number of people who honored loved ones, whose earthly careers were ended a good many years ago. That $747.05 does not include $300.00 given in 1937-1938 by an individual who is establishing a memorial at the Orphanage, and which is kept separate from the general run of memorial contributions. Since November, 1936, this individual has sent to Barium a total of $627.50, which will be part of the memorial to be set aside when the donations reach $1,000.00. That person could not give all of the money at one time, but decided to periodically send what he could spare and thus build up this memorial over a period of years.

News From Some Of The Cottages

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Folks,

It seems only a short time ago since we wrote you last.

We want to tell you about our camping trip that we took last week.

The Syond's Cottage boys and we went to the camp Monday afternoon. We had a good time and most of us enjoyed going swimming in the river. We want to thank the Fellowship Club of Charlotte and Mr. Johnston for providing such a nice camp for us.

We went to see "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs." We certainly enjoyed it.

We have had four new girls to come to our cottage since we wrote you last. Their names are: Margaret Steed from Charlotte; Dorothy Maples from Pinehurst; Margaret Bullard from Whiteville; and Kathleen Monroe moved up from the Baby Cottage.

You will hear more from us next month.

SYNOD COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Boy! Oh Boy! Oh Boy! Have we got some news to tell this month!

The Synod's boys and the Annie Louise girls were the "pioneer" campers last week at Camp Fellowship on the Catawba River. Miss Turner, Miss Brandon, Miss Anne Fayssoux and Mr. and Mrs. George Neel were our senior counsellors. Miss Carpenter was with us about half the time. There isn't room in this paper to tell about all the fun we had at the river. We crammed swimming, fishing, boatriding, and eating into all the time when we were not practicing for the tournament.

We had a good time with the hop scotch, horseshoe, bubble blowing, marbles, jump rope, jack rocks, and checker contests. When it got dark we gathered around the campfire until it was bedtime. We had our vespers around the fire. After that, we would sing and tell ghost stories.

Horace Smith is the champion fisherman of our crowd. He caught fourteen fish in two days. None of us could beat that.

We had two little collie dogs Mrs. Johnston gave us for camp companions. They were fun to play with.

We had a lot of visitors. Mr. McBride conducted vespers one night. Dr. Hoffman gave a nature talk. Mr. Culbreth gave us chewing gum.

If you see the pictures taken of us in the rapids you can tell how much fun we had.

If you visit us now you will hear about nothing but the camp.

In another month we will feel all dressed up with the front of our house plastered and painted.

Amos Hardy, Bennet Baldwin and Wilbur Coats moved to Lees Cottage as soon as we got back from the camp. Hervey Strickland and Leland Rogers have gone to Alexander Cottage. We have five boys from the Baby Cottage to take their place. They are Curtis Baldwin, John Smith, Herman Smith, Herbert Good and J. D. Everett. We have three new boys who got here in time to go to the camp. They are: Donald Ray Peters, Collin Steed and Billy Lybrandt.

We went to see "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs". It was real good and we thank Mr. Johnston for taking us to see it.

So long until next month.

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

This is the bean stringers speaking. We are glad to write to you again. Some of us went to the camp this week and they enjoyed it. We want to thank Mr. Johnston and all those responsible for making it possible for us to go there and have such a good time.

Some of our girls are going on their vacations this week. They are Jean and Anne McDonald, Jackie Newnam and Mae Allen Barrett. We will miss them very much and hope they have a good vacation.

We have a new girl at our cottage. Her name is Edna Mae Maple. We are very glad to have her with us.

Saturday afternoon Miss McDade took us to the spring and we had a good time.

That is all for this time.

So long,

—Ruth May

BABY COTTAGE

Hi folks,

Seems only yesterday they were calling for news and now they are here again.

Time surely flies, doesn't it?

Since we wrote you last we have lost five of our babies: J. D. Everett, Herbert Good, Curtis Baldwin, Herman Smith have gone to Synod's to live with Miss Taylor and her family at Synod's.

Kathleen Monroe has gone to Annie Louise to live with Mrs. Holton and her girls. But in the meantime we have three new ones. Rachel and John Bullard and Marion Maples. We are very glad to have them come live with us.

Some of our larger brothers and sisters went to the camp last week. We smaller ones felt rather left out. But Mr. Johnston took us down there one morning and gave us a box of "Big Apple" candy. So we felt much better.

Mama O'Kelly spent the last week-end at home and we were very glad to have Miss Sadie Eudy stay with us.

We sure are having lots of fruit and you bet your life we truly enjoy it.

Essie Jean Lee has returned from her vacation and she reported a good time. Frances Stricklin went home last Thursday. We hope she has a nice time.

Kenneth Mayhew and Tommy Rhyne have had visits from their people recently. They always enjoy seeing them.

We wish to thank Mr. Johnston for paying our way to see "Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs." We thoroughly enjoyed it.

Ray Powell has received her clothing box. She was thrilled to death over her clothes. They surely were cute.

Last Saturday night Mama O'Kelly and the big girls made us some ice cream for supper and was it good! O boy!

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Holt, of Burlington, came to see us Monday, June 20 and brought us some candy. We were glad to have them visit us. We are also thankful for the candy.

You will hear from us next month.

So long,

—The Babies

CARPENTERS

Hello Folks,

This is the carpenter group coming to you through The Barium Messenger.

It has been a long time since you last heard from us and we have been busy making and repairing buildings since school.

We, with the help of some old Barium graduates who are now at college, have finished the camp on the Catawba River and it has already been put in use.

Our camp has many modern luxuries such as: running water and electric lights.

At the present we are repairing some of the cottages and the home of Mr. Lackey, a farm worker.

All of us are thinking about vacations and many are now on their vacations.

Everyone here is going to have a week at the camp this summer. A few have already gone and come back. They reported a nice time.

That's about all for this time so we must say so long until next time.

YOUNG PEOPLE MEET

dren's Home, Joe Boyd, of the National Orphans' Home, and Miss Elizabeth Stinson, of Mills Home, composed the findings committee. According to agreement, older members of orphanage staffs were not in attendance upon the meeting, with the exception of Miss Sarah Richardson, young people's counsellor at the Children's Home, Miss Margaret Burnsides, counselor at the Methodist Protestant Children's Home, and Miss Mary Ella McCredie, social worker at Mills Home. These younger members of orphanage staffs were auditors and not active participants.

It is reported that the discussions of the young people centered around the social and religious opportunities in their own institutions and what they were doing with them. The afternoon session dealt with social privileges and the evening meeting with religious opportunities. Quite a number of the delegates gave accounts of privileges they enjoyed at their home institutions. They vied with one another in recounting the happy experiences which they enjoy. They surprised themselves as they recounted what they had to tell to others. As the discussions went into more serious channels the young people began to evaluate the importance they were placing upon their opportunities and how they were using them.

The evening meal was not only an occasion for satisfying their physical appetites but one for engaging in wholesome social intercourse. Gathering in the new James A. Gray Building, the delegates felt free to exchange greetings, tell jokes and sing songs in such a way as to break down all formalities and encourage genuine comradeship. In fact, one of the best features of the meeting was getting acquainted with one another when fellowship was a predominating idea. About the only time orphanage youngsters have been privileged to get together has been when an athletic contest was being played and each delegation was cheering for its team to win so lustily as to not give much of an opportunity for the boys and girls to love one another.

The young people voted to continue the conferences. After a secret ballot resulting in a tie vote for going either to Mills Home or Presbyterian Orphans' Home a second ballot resulted in deciding to go to Presbyterians Orphans' Home for the next meeting. It was also voted to have two meetings a year, one in the fall and one in the spring. Officers elected for the next meeting are: Miss Virginia Daniels, Children's Home, president; David Flowers, Presbyterians Orphans' Home, vice-president; and Frank Bailey, Mills Home, secretary.

Howard Gorman made the report for the findings committee and was instructed to write out and present it to the Tri-State Conference of Orphanage Workers which met at Epworth Orphanage, Columbia, South Carolina, the following week. Mr. Gorman made his report before this conference and was received with delight and great appreciation. Remarks were heard to the effect that similar meetings would be held in other sections of Georgia and the Carolinas.

S. S. Meals

The giving of the Sunday Schools in the first three months of 1938-1939 would have served 32,205 meals at the Orphanage, at the rate of ten cents per meal per child, which is always used as a basis, even though the actual cost per meal is less than that. This is 1,573 meals less than could have been served in the same period a year ago, which means that the Sunday Schools gave the Orphanage $157.29 less in the first quarter in the current year than in the same months of 1937-1938.

Meals which could have been served with the Sunday School Offerings for the past 27 months are as follows:

Month	'36-'37	'37-'38	'38-'39
April	8,589	7,569	7,012

CAMP FELLOWSHIP

this too much in detail for fear it will get monotonous. You will find mention of this in every cottage letter from now on until snow falls.

Speaking of puppies, a neighbor gave us two small collie pups, and they are part of the camp equipment. They get awfully lonesome when there are no little boys to play with them, and when they get tired of the boys, they just go right under the house and rest up. They furnish a lot of fun and get a lot of fun out of the camp.

Before we close this article we want to hand some bouquets to the sheep. You remember our first description of the camp in a former issue of The Messenger. It was one mass of honeysuckle, poison oak and cane. We despaired of getting it cleaned up enough for this year, but we did make a start at it, and then fenced this in and put some sheep in it. Those sheep first ate every sprig of poison oak that there was in the camp site, then they worked on the honeysuckle and then the cane, and they did such a grand job of it that not one single case of poison oak poisoning resulted from our week's camp. There were a lot of stumped toes and cut feet from stumps and roots, but the sheep just couldn't quite handle this in one summer. We believe that they will have it all in ship-shape by next summer so that even a stumped toe will be a rarity.

Even when we have a stumped toe, it isn't altogether a calamity. Mr. Allen Mills and his daughter, Mildred, presented us with a beautiful first-aid cabinet and it has so many things in there that it looks like every emergency was anticipated. It just makes you want to go out and stump your toe to get treated from such a fine cabinet.

By the way the Mills family have had a lot to do with this camp. Mr. N. B. Mills is the trustee of the land on which the camp is located. It was through his cooperation and encouragement that the land was secured for this camp. His son, Mr. Allen Mills, helped work this through also. And now his daughter's name is on the first-aid cabinet. Three generations of Mills! We hope there will be a dozen generations like them.

The only thing that marred the first camp was the lack of light. We built the camp in such a hurry that we had not made adequate provision for lights, and when the time came to start up, it looked as though we would not get the lights, but several good friends, working together with the Duke Power Company, arranged for us to have lights, and these are now being installed. Next week it will look like the Great White Way.

It may be of interest to our readers to know the schedule of this camp. Here it is: Next week, commencing July 4th, the Junior Order Orphanage of Lexington will use the camp. On the week following, July 11th, Barium will use it. On the 18th, Barium will use it. Then the week commencing July 25th and August 1st, it will be used by the big Baptist Orphanage of Thomasville. The week commencing August 8th, it will be used by the Children's Home of Winston-Salem. Then August 15th and August 22nd, again by Barium.

If you are interested in any of these groups, drop in and pay them a visit. It will knock a few years off of your age to spend a little time with these delightful groups of young people.

On the opening night, June 17th, it had been suggested that a name be selected, and a number of names were mentioned - names of individuals - but somehow none of these suggestions seemed just to click. During the first camp, somehow folks just commenced to call it "Camp Fellowship." They knew that the Fellowship Club of Charlotte Second Church had sponsored the idea, and everybody else had fallen in with the idea just like good fellows, too. It seems that that name "Fellowship" just grew on the camp rather than by having anyone suggest it and it looks like that name will stick. Can anyone suggest a better?

Camp Fellowship On the Catawba River

Camp Fellowship Notes

During the week of June 20-25, 80 Barium boys and girls tried out Camp Fellowship on the Catawba River for the first time. Misses Mary E. Turner, Sadie Brandon and Ann Fayssoux Johnston were counsellors-in-charge. Mr. and Mrs. George Neel and Miss Rebekah Carpenter assisted during part of the stay.

At the end of the week the children held an election in order to determine who was the best camper. Results: Girls, first place (tie) Martha Price and Margaret Steed; second place (tie) Ernestine Baldwin and Helen Hawley. Boys, first place (tie) Bennett Baldwin and Raymond Good; second place, Gene Love.

A committe of senior counsellors selected the following as outstanding campers worthy of honorable mention: (Girls) Betty Lou Davis, Callie Dunn, Dorothy Maples, Lee Vinson and Betty Williams; (Boys) Dallas Ammons, Billy Everett, Grady Mundy, Robert L. Pearson and Dwight Spencer.

On the assumption that the Synod of North Carolina will contribute as much to the Presbyterian Orphans' Home in 1938-1939 as was sent to Barium Springs in 1937-1938, the records show that the Presbyterians of the Synod have sent, during the first quarter, one-fourteenth of what they will give in a year's duration. In other words, slightly more than 7% of the Orphanage's income from Synod had been forwarded in three months leaving 93% to arrive in the final nine months.

June's receipts from Synod marred the enthusiasm that had been generated by virtue of the April and May donations. The contributions in the first two months had together shown an increase of $388.09, but the gifts in June were $331.39 less than those in June, 1937. That still gives the Orphanage an increase of $56.70 for the first quarter, which is not much, but it is an increase, nevertheless. Maybe the July income will be far above the average. It is truly hoped that the receipts in the month now in progress will more than measure up to those of July, 1937.

Albemarle Presbytery takes the leadership in per capita giving at the end of June. Orange was on top last month, but slipped back to third place as Winston-Salem squeezed into second. Only five-tenths of a cent separates the three top-ranking Presbyteries. All other six Presbyteries are in identical positions to those they occupied at the end of May.

Here's the way the Presbyteries compared with a year ago:

Synodical Orphanage Secretary Says

To the Women of North Carolina Synodical Auxiliary.

Dear Friends,

It's summer time, vacation time and time for that visit to Barium Springs. Some of you have already given yourselves the joy of a whole day spent at the Orphanage. Others of you are doubtless planning to do this very thing and there are yet so many others who have not definitely decided that one of the most interesting and happy events of the summer will be such a visit.

When your Presbyterial Orphanage Work Secretaries met in May, they decided that one of the best things we could do was to ask just as many of our women as possible to learn to know the Orphanage at first hand by going and seeing for themselves. And so we planned. I pass on the word, all Orphanage Work Scretaries, in Presbyterial groups are urged to spend a day at Barium and then all others who can and will go will be given a hearty welcome.

If this objective is reached and every Auxiliary in our whole Synodical has the personal touch with this heart center of our church, a new day of information, inspiration and zeal lies ahead.

Perhaps you are going to Montreat. Why not stop over at Barium? Perhaps you are going to the sea. Why not stop over at Barium? Perhaps you are going to points North, South, East or West; why not stop over at Barium?

Perhaps you are spending the summer at home. Why not plan one day at Barium?

If a group is going, send a card ahead and you will have one of the most interesting of your vacation experiences.

Go and see!

Faithfuly yours,
(Mrs. C. E.) Margaret Raynal,
Synodical Orphanage Work Secretary,
Statesville, N. C.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Steele-Dishman

Miss Edmonia Steele, who was a resident of the Orphanage for a number of years and would have graduated in the class of 1937, and James Robert Dishman, both of Statesville, were married at the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Statesville at 7 o'clock Friday night, July 1st. After July 10th, the young couple will be at home at 114 Patterson St., Statesville. Miss Steele attended Scotts high school and Mitchell College. Mr. Dishman graduated from Scotts high school and holds a position with the Statesville Manufacturing Company.

Smith-Mills

Miss Marie Smith and Robert Mills, recent alumni of the Orphanage, were married on June 8th and are now residing at 227 North Trade Street, Winston-Salem. The bride was graduated from the Orphanage in the class of 1938 on Auril 25th, and the groom was a member of the rising senior class. He expressed a desire to leave to obtain work and was dismissed shortly after the school session was completed. The next news was the announcement of this marriage.

Smith-McCrimmon

Miss Elmeree Smith and Hugh McCrimmon, both graduates of Barium in the class of 1938, were married in High Point last month and are now residing at 204 English Street, High Point. The bride worked in Charlotte for a while after graduation, but later obtained employment in High Point, where the groom was already working. They were married two weeks after she went to High Point.

Lineberger-Fraley

"Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Loy Lineberger, of Winston-Salem, announce the marriage of their sister, Mary Claudia, to Mr. Walter White Fraley, on Thursday, the thirtieth of June, 1938. At home: Christchurch, Va." The above announcement will be of interest to alumni of Barium, for Walter Fraley finished at the Orphanage in 1927, made a brilliant record at Davidson College, from which he was graduated in 1931, and has since been affiliated with three preparatory schools as teacher and coach. He will teach and coach at Christ's School in Virginia next year, going to that institution this fall from Episcopal High at Alexandria, Va., where he was connected last year.

"Your honor," complained the husband, "she's been throwing things at me ever since we were married twenty years ago."

"Then why haven't you complained before?" asked the judge.

"This is the first time she's hit me, your honor."
